orders.

Langford House,

Bangalore,

23rd Feb. 1922.

My dear Mr. H. K. ...

I enclose a letter in original from Mr. Dove-Wilson which will speak for itself.

I have no objection to the renewal of the offer made to him, under the circumstances, viz., that he should take over the Agency and Chief Engineer-ship for the remaining period of his term on Rs.1,800 - 2,000. He came in a three years' contract. An early decision is necessary and perhaps we may discuss the matter at the next Council meeting

meeting, if you approve.

Yours sincerely,

RAILWAY SECRETARIAT,

Bangalore, 22nd Feb 1922

Dear Mr. Banerji,

I have been very much worried during the last few days owing to the failure of a Company in which I had £2000. I am laying myself open to ridicule and know that I have no right to abuse further the hospitality of the State, but is there any chance now of my being allowed to stay on here as Agent?

I do not suppose that there is, but if it were possible I could make up what I have lost and my boy who is being educated in England would not have to suffer for my unfortunate investment - If I had had any idea of this I should not have been such a fool as to refuse the offer when you kindly gave me the chance -

Yours sincerely

Subject:— Mr. Dove-Wilson's letter of the 22nd February 1922 expressing his willingness to stay on in Mysore as Agent, Mysore Railways, for the remaining portion of his term.

In my Final Note^x dated the 29th October 1921, I submitted the resolution of the Council, viz., that Mr. Dani's services may be terminated and if Mr. Dove-Wilson is agreeable, he may be relieved of the Secretariat duties and put in charge of the Railway as Agent and Chief Engineer for the remaining portion of his term on a salary of Rs.1,800 from date of charge and Rs.2,000 during the last year of his service. In his orders communicated in Mr. Campbell's demi-official letter No.135^x dated the 23rd November 1921, His Highness approved of Mr. Dani's reversion and directed that his place should be taken (1) either by Mr. Dove-Wilson if he agrees to accept the appointment on the terms offered until he completes his term of service, or (2) by an expert Railway officer - either Indian or European - to be borrowed by the Government of India.

Mr. Dove-Wilson, however, expressed his inability to take over the office of Agent and asked for permission to take such privilege leave as may be due to him about the 15th May next, with permission to retire at the end of the period. This request was granted by His Highness on the 18th January, 1922. In these circumstances, a reference was made to the Railway Board for the loan of the services of a suitable officer to take up the duties of the Agent and also another officer for the Traffic Manager's place.

Mr. Dove-Wilson has since, in his letter dated the 22nd February 1922; written to say that he is agreeable to remain in Mysore service as Agent, Mysore Railways, for the remaining period of his ~~xxxxxx~~ term.

This letter was considered in Council on the 25th February 1922 and the following resolution was recorded:-

"With reference to Mr. Dove-Wilson's recent application that he may be allowed to continue, the Council is of opinion that he may be retained here for the remaining period of his agreement. He may be appointed Agent and Engineer-in-Chief on the reversion of Mr. Dani. The terms may be those already offered to him with the approval of His Highness".

The above recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved. only one office for traffic may be allowed from

With reference to His Highness' orders dated 28th February 1922 sanctioning the retention of the services of Mr. C. Dove Wilson, Secretary to Government for Railways, for the remaining portion of his term and to his appointment as Agent and Engineer-in-Chief, Mysore Railways, on the reversion of Mr. D. G. Dani to the British Service, I beg to state that the question as to the duties of the Railway Secretary to Government was not considered in the previous resolution of the Council. I therefore had this question considered at the last meeting on the 16th March when the following resolution was recorded:-

" On the reversion of Mr. Dani, Mr. Dove Wilson may be Agent and Engineer-in-Chief in addition to his duties as Railway Secretary, pending orders on the reorganisation scheme of the Public Works Department under which it is proposed to separate the Chief Engineership from the office of Secretary, Public Works Department."
